

Gene South

The sixth inductee is Gene South. Gene played on the 1943-44 and 1945-46 Warren County Championship basketball team. Gene also won the Warren County free throw championship his senior year. During his senior season he played against Waynesville and scored a career high 28 points. He played baseball in 1946 as well and his team won the Warren County Championship.

Upon graduation, he played on an AAU basketball team known as the Dayton Air Jems. He was drafted in the Army in 1952 and played basketball for his Army unit and was named MVP of his unit. He averaged 23.6 points per game and he qualified for the All Star Army team in 1953.

2014 inductee...Gene South